Statement

Mr. Martin Hans Peter, holder of German Passport was lodged in the Central Jail, Tihar, on challan from the Presidency Jail, Calcutta on 2nd January, 1987 for the purpose of production before the Advisory Board on 7th January, 1987. He was detained under COFEPOSA by the Government of India. Subsequently, on 10th June, 1987 the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi passed an order to the effect that Mr. Peter should not be removed from the Central Jail Tihar to any other prison outside Delhi. "

On 3rd July, 1987 orders dated 29th June, 1987 were received by the Jail authorities requiring them to produce Mr. Peter in the Court of CJM, North, 24 Parganas on 13th July, 1987. In the Orders it was mentioned that Superintendent, Presidency Jail shall arrange for the production of the accused and shall send the required escort party for the purpose. However, message was sent to the Court stating that in view of the orders passed by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in June, 1987, Mr. Peter can not be removed from the Central Jail Tihar, Moreover, the Presidency Jail, Calcutta autho-rities did not arrange the necessary escort party. Later the detention order in respect of Mr. Peter under COFEPOSA dated 3rd November, 1986 was quashed by Hon'ble High Court Delhi, vide orders 3rd August, 1987. The accused was accordingly released from COFEPOSA on 6th August, 1987 and was detained as under trial with effect from the same date. Messages were again sent to the CJM and the Superintendent Collectorate of Customs on 6th and 7th August, 1987. However, no escort party was sent by the authorities.

In the absence of any valid Production Order with the Central Jail authorities, Tihar, Mr. Peter was released from the jail on the 10th August, 1987.
